

Louvre Clues

- 1. Also known as Nike, this winged, headless sculpture's likeness is often seen on the bows of ships.
- 2. This statue with no arms is one of the most famous classical depictions of female beauty.
- 3. This is a painting of the wreck of the Medusa, a French warship.
- 4. This 9,000 year old statue is the oldest item displayed at the Louvre.
- 5. Carved from stone, these are winged bulls with the heads of men.
- 6. These two statues of slaves were carved in marble by Michelangelo.
- 7. This famous Da Vinci painting is a half-length portrait of a woman with a smile that has inspired songs, literary debate and more.
- 8. This granite sculpture pays homage to the celebrated relationship between the sun "god", represented by a lion's body, and a king, represented by the human head, to the people of ancient Egypt.
- 9. This painting (by the Italian artist Paolo Veronese) is a depiction of the biblical story of the Marriage at Cana where Jesus converts water to wine.
- 10. Also known as Giovanna degli Albizzi Receiving a Gift of Flowers from Venus, this is a fresco painting by the Italian Renaissance painter Sandro Botticelli.

Bonus Points

- 1. The Louvre is now a famous museum. What was it originally?
 - 2. Who stole the Mona Lisa on August 21, 1911?
 - 3. In The Da Vinci Code, who does Brown claim is buried under the Louvre?
-